RESPONSORIAL PSALM (1)

This follows the first scripture reading and is text from the Book of Psalms that is set to music. In the celebration of Mass the Psalm is led by a cantor and the congregation sings the response as we do at Sunday mass.

(C1) Psalm 33: Response: "The earth is full of the goodness of the Lord."

(C2A) Psalm 34: Response: "I will bless the Lord at all times."

(C2B) Psalm 34: Response: "Taste and See the goodness of the Lord."

(C3) Psalm 103 Response: "The Lord is kind and merciful."

(C4) Psalm 112 Response: "Blessed the man who greatly delights in the Lord's commands."

(C5A) Psalm 128 Response: "Blessed are those who fear the Lord."

(C5B) Psalm 128 Response: "See how the Lord blesses those who fear him."

(C6) Psalm 145 Response: "How good is the Lord to all."

(C7) Psalm 148 Response: "Let all praise the name of the Lord."

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION ALLELUIA VERSE: (1)

(E1) "May the Lord bless you from Zion, he who made heaven and earth." OCM 56

(E2/4) "God is love. Let us love one another, as God has loved us." 1John 4:8, 11

(E3) "Everyone who loves is begotten of God and knows God." 1John 4:7b

(E5) "If we love one another, God remains in us and his love is brought to perfection in us"

1John 4:12

(E6) "Whoever remains in love, remains in God and God in him."

1John 4:16
